4. Manager's Report – Steve Lorraine

- The Water Quality Symposium was held last week. All staff attended training, except Steve and Carl. The trainings provided were beneficial.
- We are working on numerous design packages to be sent out to bid soon for construction projects coming this summer.
- We will start receiving trees and packing orders in the beginning of April. Tree pickup day is April 16th.
- We will need to adjust the April meeting day, due to the tree sale and Conservation Farm of the Year luncheon. Tentatively Friday, April 17th.
- Steve is working on RD 31 grants.

5. FSA – No report, no one present

6. NRCS – No report, no one present

Steve Lorraine shared an email from Abby Gulseth, inviting members to attend the Local Working Group meeting for Herkimer, Madison And Oneida Counties on April 8, 2026.

7. CCE – Maryellen Sheehan, Agriculture and Horticulture Resource Educator

Maryellen sent a report that was in the director packets. She discussed items from the report and handed out flyers regarding upcoming events and trainings.

Steve Lorraine added that Maryellen has continued to help out SWCD with an irrigation project.

8. Committee Reports

SWCC – Ryan Cunningham

The March 2026 SWCC report was included in the director's packets. Ryan reviewed the report and various deadlines with the board.

County – Dana Krueger

- Committee meeting is next week.
- Dana is new to the SWCD board. She signed the Oath of Office. She also serves on the Planning Dept, Corrections and Emergency Management boards.
- Dana attended a state conference this week in Albany for the State Association of Counties.
- She also recently attended the Ag and Economic Development session. The commissioner spoke about the impact of FFA and the trickle-down of changes in national funding.

9. NYACD/NACD

- The February 27th Letter to Directors from Blanche Hurbutt was included in the meeting packets, along with a flyer regarding an upcoming training and meeting on October 26-27.

10. CDEA – Steve Lorraine
